Dear friends

As Christmas turns into Epiphany we start this term on a note of thankfulness. The Feast of the Epiphany in the Christian calendar recalls the gifts that the Three Kings (or magi, or sages, from the East) brought to the infant Jesus. Their myrrh, frankincense, and gold, were precious and mysterious, valuable and symbolic gifts that each said something important about who the Christ child was. (If you want to know more, let’s meet for a cuppa and I’ll tell you...) We each have gifts to celebrate and share. We can be thankful for our own individual gifts, for the gifts we hold in common in our College, and for each others’ gifts.

As I start on my final term as your Chaplain, I’m full of thankfulness for the gifts I have received here, for the many gifts we’ve shared - students, staff, alumni, Fellows, family members, visitors, and everyone whom I’ve met through the College. And as I move on to helping others realise their aspirations in the Diocese of Ely, I pray that you too may encourage one another to enjoy and share your gifts here and in your lives ahead.

God bless Megan

Each term, we take account of a few religious or cultural festivals in our dining. Some of the food offered will be associated with these festivals or holy days. It’s a chance to learn about a range of religious and cultural festivals and celebrate our diversity. Sign-up and cost are as usual.

We celebrate St. David’s Day or Gŵl Dewi Sant on Friday of 7th week (1 March).

Current staff will be able to enjoy a coffee morning with Welsh cakes, while local alumni and retired staff will be invited to a Welsh tea in the afternoon. Daffodils will be everywhere!

The central celebration is in Chapel at 5.30pm and is open to all. Come and hear our choir singing in Welsh in this service where the only English spoken is the sermon, preached this year by The Revd Dr Ainsley Griffiths, Principal of St Padarn’s Institute, a new centre for ministry training in Wales. Inhabit something of our Welsh roots in our College history and traditions.

Sunday Evensong is the main Chapel service of the week for the whole College, with beautiful music and excellent speakers. You are all very welcome, whether you are a Christian, exploring your faith, or simply want to come to hear the speakers and the music. See next page for speakers and subjects. The service starts at 5.45pm unless otherwise specified.

Morning Prayer is a time when the Chapel is booked for quiet prayer. When the Chaplain is present, we follow a modern Church of England service, praying for the College and the wider world. Otherwise please make the most of this meditative time as a way to start the day well.

Scriptural Reasoning (SR) is a practice of inter-faith reading where people of all faiths gather and reflect on short passages from their scriptures together. See page 6 for more information.

Oxford Mindfulness Groups (also known as OMG) is an opportunity for students to experience meditative practices influenced by different faith traditions. If you are coming on from something you will be able to slip in quietly. See page 6 for more information.

Students often speak at Tuesdays Holy Communion; this service combines sociable joy with a reflective peace and the message of the Christian Gospel. Sherry follows, before Formal.

The Christian Union meets on Wednesdays. Weeks 1,3,5,7 are at Oxford Inter-Collegiate Christian Union ("Central") at Wesley Memorial Church at 8.00pm: students from Jesus meet up at the Mitre at 7.30pm to go along together. The College CU meets in weeks 2,4,6,8 in Chapel at 6.15pm. There is also an informal Prayer Meeting on Saturday mornings.

Friday@1 This is an informal performance corner for the creative arts to add some relaxation to every Friday lunchtime from 1.10pm. Get involved with performing by emailing timothy.brown@jesus.ox.ac.uk or just turn up to perform or listen each Friday! Music, poetry, drama, spoken word, anything else you can think of - we'd absolutely love to see you!

Deep Chat is a weekly relaxed discussion group on big topics ranging from lad culture to animal welfare to human nature. Come along and chat or just listen and think through some interesting and important issues for the world we live in! Updates will be on JCR Facebook.

The Chaplain

On Sunday of 6th week (17 February) we mark the end of the TURL STREET ARTS FESTIVAL with a joint choirs’ Evensong. This year, the service takes place at our own College Chapel, beginning at 5.30pm.

Our cover image this term is “Row your boat, blue river” by Daphne Stephenson. The image was painted in Portugal and inspired by life in Kashmir: the fusion of international experiences is typical of this artist’s work. It is acrylic on canvas, 122 x 92 cm, reproduced by kind permission of the artist in conjunction with Iona House Gallery, Woodstock, which is exhibiting her work this Spring.

In 4th and 5th weeks in Chapel we are hosting a small photography exhibition by Rosalyn Green, our Director of Human Resources. Entitled “Beauty in Creative Detail” it will feature new perspectives on the natural world. All are welcome to drop in to Chapel at any time to spend some moments with these inspirational images.

The College Chapel Choir sings at Sunday Evensong and a few concerts and other special occasions. It rehearses 6.30pm-8.00pm on Thursdays and 4.00pm-5.15pm on Sundays. All members of the choir are offered choir tour opportunities, free singing lessons, and free dinner after Evensong. New members are welcome. It is non-auditioning but attendance at rehearsals, and taking up the provision of singing lessons, are required unless by arrangement. If you would like to join, or find out more, please contact lucia.svecova@jesus.ox.ac.uk.

Don’t forget, we have the Jesus College Chapel Choir CD available for sale at the Lodge.

TURL STREET ARTS FESTIVAL

Look out for separate posters and publicity for the great Turl Street Arts Festival from the end of 4th week to the beginning of 6th week of term. But in the meantime to catch your notice:

On Sunday 10th February there is the Street Fair which will be held on Brasenose Lane.
On Saturday 16th February there is the Jazz Ball which will be hosted in our Hall.
And don’t forget the Festival Evensong on 17th February hosted in our Chapel at 5.30pm the three choirs of Exeter, Jesus, and Lincoln come together and make glorious music.

FOR MUSIC PRACTICE

The Chapel Grand Piano, the smaller Ship Street Bastion Grand Piano, and the Chapel Harpsichord are all available for use by those who would be willing to give a recital or contribute their musical gifts substantially to a concert or other College event. For more information, contact the Chaplain.

The Soirée is a termly event, to be held this term on Tuesday of 4th week (5 February). If you want to perform, please contact lucia.svecova@jesus.ox.ac.uk. If you are interested in attending, look out for an email from Helen Gee - and remember, first come, first served!
INTERFAITH AND MULTI-FaITH OPPORTUNITIES

SCRIPTURAL REASONING

Scriptural Reasoning (SR) is a practice of inter-faith reading where people of all faiths gather and reflect on short passages from their scriptures together. There is sometimes overlap between texts where different faiths share their Scriptures. It is a worldwide movement www.scripturalexplanation.org and this is the major meeting in Oxford. We meet in the Harold Wilson Room on Thursdays 1.00-2.30pm. We spend time with texts from Jewish, Christian, and Muslim traditions, and discuss ancient, medieval, and modern interpretations of Scripture, modern day practices which reflect these texts, and what they mean personally for individuals and faith communities. Free, simple kosher snacks may be provided. For more information please contact spencer.klavan@magd.ox.ac.uk.

People of all backgrounds are welcome – Christians, those of other faiths and of none – for rest, retreat, and renewal of life.
