

JESUS COLLEGE OXFORD

JC:P204 NOTES ON MEMORIALS TO THE FAMILY OF PRINCIPAL GRIFFITH LLOYD IN THE CHURCH OF ST. MICHAEL AT THE NORTHGATE, 1895 AND 1962

These papers were given to the Principal of Jesus College in March 1962 by the Rev. Robert Reginald Martin (d. 1965), former Rector of St. Martin and All Saints and Vicar of St. Michael's, who had found them in the church's archives. They were transferred to the College Library, where they were originally catalogued as MS 248, and then transferred again to the College Archives in September 2018 as part of Accession No. 507.

Catalogued in November 2019.

7 Sep 1895

Notes on the monuments in the church of St. Michael at the Northgate to Anne Lloyd and Jane Lloyd. Anne and Jane were respectively the wife and daughter of Griffith Lloyd, the second Principal of Jesus College (in office from 1572-86). The monument shows that Anne died in 1615 and Jane in 1596. These notes were compiled by G. Parker of the Bodleian Library, and presented to the then Vicar of St. Michael's.
