

JESUS COLLEGE OXFORD

JC:PR20 PAPERS OF HENRY FOULKES (MATR. 1790; F. 1796-1817; PR. 1817-57)

Henry Foulkes, from Denbighshire, matriculated from Jesus College on 10 July 1790 aged 17, and spent the rest of his life at the College, becoming a Fellow in 1796 and Principal in 1817. He died in office in 1857.

Very few papers relating to Foulkes are preserved in the College's archives. They were found here in the spring of 2016.

Catalogued in January 2020.

JC:PR20/CI - CORRESPONDENCE

JC:PR20/CI/I

14 May 1831

Letter from Thomas Procter (matr. 1818; address, Calcutta) to Henry Foulkes. Procter, who at this time was a chaplain to the forces in Calcutta, wishes to apply for the new Boden Professorship in Sanscrit, and asks Foulkes to support his candidature. He sets out his qualifications for the post. Procter's application was unsuccessful, and he died in Calcutta in 1836.

JC:PE20/NI - PUBLICATION

JC:PR20/NI/I

1819

Copy of A Sketch of the Character of the Late Bishop of Peterborough in a Letter to the Right Honourable Sir William Scott (London, 1819), by Edward Patteson. The Bishop was John Parsons, Master of Balliol 1798-1819. A note on the back shows that this had been presented to the then "Master" [sic] of Jesus College by the author.