JC:P96 PHOTOGRAPHS OF AN OXFORD MOCK FUNERAL, c, 1920

These two photographs were given to the College in May 2016 by C. Hugh Lloyd, whose father, Thomas, appears in them, as explained below. They were assigned the Accession Number 258.

Catalogued in February 2017.

JC:P96/P1/I-2

c. 1920

Two photographs of a “mock funeral” being held in Queen’s Lane, just outside St. Edmund Hall. Thomas Meirion Lloyd (matr. 1919) is among the “mourners”, and is identified on JC:P96/P1/I. Mock funerals were held on the occasion of an undergraduate being sent down. The undergraduate in question was put in a hearse and taken to the railway station, while his friends would process around, often making a loud noise. On this occasion, Lloyd was playing a side drum.
Size: both 115 by 150 mm.
