Pdf version of the memoirs of Ivor Elwyn Hughes (matr. 1926). Hughes completed these memoirs in about 1988, and they were then published in 2009, with a short epilogue, including his obituary from the Jesus College Magazine. Hughes's memoirs cover the first thirty years of his life, and include a very detailed account of his time at Jesus College from 1926-30. As well as discussing his work on Mathematics, Hughes recalls the social life of the College, and his activities playing rugby and football, as well as his membership of the Elizabethans Society.
